Sector focus Financial Institutions

NautaDutilh is a trusted adviser to many of the Benelux's leading financial institutions. Our clients include banks, insurers, asset managers, payment service providers and other financial market participants. We combine deep sector knowledge with market-leading corporate, regulatory and governance expertise to support clients on strategic transactions, investments, partnerships and transformations. This enables us to deliver commercially focused advice that reflects both the opportunities and the regulatory complexities facing the financial services sector.

What others say about us?

"NautaDutilh's lawyers combine tenacity with balance, securing optimal terms for us without sacrificing momentum or pragmatism in high-paced environments."

Chambers Europe 2026

"The lawyers are approachable and responsive, while at the same time drawing on a wide range of specialised knowledge. This enables the team not only to provide strong technical advice but also to contribute at a strategic level, anticipating future challenges and opportunities."

Legal 500 2026

"What distinguishes NautaDutilh's M&A team is its ability to handle sophisticated, high-stakes transactions with both precision and pragmatism."

Your expert team

Our Financial Institutions team brings together leading specialists in M&A, financial regulatory, corporate governance, notarial and tax matters. Working as one integrated team, we advise clients on complex transactions involving regulated entities across the Benelux. Our deep understanding of the financial services sector, including our familiarity with the Dutch regulators DNB and AFM, combined with extensive transaction experience, enables us to anticipate regulatory challenges, manage stakeholder expectations and deliver practical, commercially focused solutions. Clients benefit from a team that understands both the legal and business dynamics of the sector.

Benelux roots, global reach

With offices in Amsterdam, Brussels, Luxembourg, London and New York, we combine a strong Benelux presence with an international outlook. We regularly advise on cross-border transactions involving financial institutions, investors and financial sponsors across multiple jurisdictions. Through our longstanding relationships with leading law firms worldwide, we can assemble the right team wherever a transaction takes place, ensuring seamless coordination and consistent advice across borders.
