NautaDutilh

NautaDutilh appoints new partners

Leading Benelux law firm NautaDutilh has announced the appointment of Elke Janssens [1973] as partner at the General Meeting of Shareholders. Elke Janssens is specialised in corporate and financial law and is part of the Corporate & Finance practice group at the Brussels office. This practice group, which focuses strongly on the Belgian market, occupies a central place in the Brussels office. Elke will devote herself mostly to the further growth of the Mergers & Acquisitions market segment. She publishes and lectures regularly and is a voluntary co-worker at the University of Brussels.

The following people have also been appointed as associate partners at NautaDutilh:

Frederike Manzoni-van de Kuilen [1972] works at NautaDutilh in Amsterdam and is specialised in tax law. She advises national and international clients on VAT and customs issues. She also represents these clients in national and international acquisitions and financing transactions. In addition to this, she is involved in public-private infrastructure and real estate projects.

Léon Wijsman [1971] is head of NautaDutilh's Tax Litigation group in the Netherlands. As a lawyer and tax expert, he focuses on litigation and advising on tax and customs issues at national and European level. His clients are domestic and foreign companies, multinationals, banks, insurance companies and manufacturing and trading companies. He is also carrying out research at the Erasmus University Rotterdam.
