Barbara Nijs joins NautaDutilh's competition team

Amsterdam, 1 May 2012 - Barbara Nijs has joined NautaDutilh's competition team as counsel. She is a lawyer specialised in European and Dutch competition law. She has extensive experience of cartels and reporting mergers and acquisitions to the Netherlands Competition Authority (NMa) and the European Commission. Previously, Nijs worked for Clifford Chance in Amsterdam and London, from where she was also seconded to Shell. Before that, she worked for the NMa and then the European Commission, where she was national expert in competition law. Nijs publishes regularly in professional journals and is editor of the journal Tijdschrift Mededingingsrecht in de Praktijk. She is also a regular speaker and teaches on courses such as the Advanced Training Course for Young Lawyers on 'Competition Law for the Dutch Practice'. NautaDutilh is delighted with this new impetus for its competition team.
